So I heard about this game through Letigress' stream. My understanding is she partnered up with the developers in order to help promote the game, which is neat. So lets get into why I DO reccomend this game...

The style is very remincent of Hearthstone. The cards look slightly similar but the style is VERY different. I mean, for starters, its a board game. Games take anywhere between 5-15 minutes for a round, which I think is perfect. There is a fair amount of strategy that goes into a match. For $5, I think it is totally worth giving this game a try and seeing where the developers take it! Now... Here is what I'd like to see from the game...

-MULTIPLAYER! This game needs to let me play against my friends. That's like 80% of the appeal. I've already beat all the bots. Give me new game modes. This should be the developers first priority.

-Card variety. Right now the starter deck gets stale after 3-5 hours. There is very little you can do with it at the moment. This game needs 100+ cards to REALLY start to be something special.

-More characters. This is a given and the developers know this. I'm excited to see what they come up with. The abilities of the NPCs you can play seem neat.

-Let the text and dialogue move at the player's pace. Create like a "Next" arrow when interactions and stuff are happening. Everything moves so fast right now and I missed a lot of it when I first started.

-New boards. The board now is cool, but I'd like more stuff to happen on it and in the future even have different boards that aren't as simple as a single square. Maybe something that can accomodate more than two players?

That's all I have for now. I'll update as the developers do. You should get this game. It is cheap and a lot of fun! I only have 1.4 hours shows while I write this, but played offline for 5ish hours. I'll probably play 5 or so more on this patch then wait for updates. Thank you to Letigress for turning me on to this! :)

Cheers.. I'm very on the fence about recommending this game.....It has some really compelling graphics and is absolutely fun to play....In the A10 warthog, and to a lesser degree the helicopter but the boat gives me nausea. One major complaint I have is the lack of manuverability of the A10, since many negative reviews mention this I don't understand why the devloper chooses to ignore the widest point of criticism. What I love about the game, well the first time I played and took the A10 up in the sky and flew a wide circle through the clouds around my naval fleet....It felt and looked amazing....Why oh why is there not more flight sim in VR?!?! Anyway, I do recomend this game and hope that as it gets developed some of the detracting elements get refined as it progresses through early access.

16 GB RAM. Hey goy, I heard you like DLC?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3F0Xx-oQKsU>. SO FUNNY XD. Dumb. Da Dumb dumb....Dumb

Last boss is too simple and boring.. I swear by Mr. Foster myself, the reason alone is reason enough to buy it, Mr Foster is definitely the selling point though, I seldom use the other guys, until recently when I found it fun to pick playermodels based on the map. But to walk into the server as everyone's favorite character is well satisfying.

Its funny how a character from DLC ultimatley became the face for the entire series.

I guess theres something about a regular guy in a mangled suit with a military surplus gas mask that paints a clear sign of the world having gone down the tubes and the military was conscripting average joes out of desperation. Not unlike Louis in Left 4 Dead I suppose, sans the mask.

. I'm a fans of SAO Anime. But not this game...

One word to summarize this game : "Boring..."

I lost all my passion to finish the game, so here is my unfinished review

Pros :

- It's SAO game with all the SAO Characters and resources

CONS :

- No real story or conflict. Just you trying to get to the top floor.

- Booooooring and repetitive battle. You repeat the same chore again and again untill you reach the top floor.... Even the hollow area is not that interesting..... Relaxing, fun, pretty, psychedelic, unique game. Whenever I need to relax after some zombies or killer robots, A quick round of BLARP! never fails to calm me down and put a smile on my face. Love it.. Working fine on Windows 10 with 4k resolution screen

Very nice game highly recommended!. It's not for everyone but I like it. Trying to survive as an 80's delinquent by playing the horses and having random acts of weirdness on the beach is pretty amusing. They are using their starters orders game to play out the races. Apparently in the 80's bookie shops in England, punters bet on races with only an audio call of the race. I'm only guessing because I'm from the states... Wish they would use the announcer calls for their starters orders races but I digress... So yeah it's stupid, it's fun and weird but there is nothing like it. If you like horse racing, then you should give this a go because there just isn't much out there for us.
